

Tanjung Rhu Resort

LOCATION OF LANGKAWI

Tucked in the northwest of the peninsular of Malaysia on the Thai-Malaysian border is an archipelago of islands collectively known as Langkawi. Of these only are 3 populated, making the channels, inlets, bays and virgin island jungles a heavenly respite from the city. A host to such events as the Langkawi International Maritime and Aerospace Exhibition (LIMA) and the Langkawi International Dialogue, this duty-free haven is growing in popularity.

TRANSPORTATION TO THE ISLAND

Langkawi Island can be accessed by boat from Kuala Perlis and Kuala Kedah where the mainland jetties are located. Malaysia Airlines, Silk Air and Air Asia have daily flights into Langkawi International Airport from Kuala Lumpur, Penang, Johor Bahru and Singapore.

AROUND THE ISLAND

The resort can arrange chauffeur driven Daimlers. You can also charter licensed taxis (it is wise to determine the fare prior to your trip, as there are no meters). Alternatively, you could rent cars, motorcycles, vans or bicycles. The resort has its own vehicles for self drive hire.

LOCATION OF TANJUNG RHU RESORT

Tanjung Rhu Resort is located in Tanjung Rhu on the northern tip of Langkawi's main island. Surrounded by 1,100 acres of lush tropical greenery, the resort sits on a 2.5 km long sandy beach offering breathtaking views of the Andaman sea and varied landscape of mangroves, waterways and limestone crags. It is 30 minutes from the main town, Kuah, and the Langkawi International Airport.
