

The Blue Water - Wadduwa

An Aesthetic Wonderland

Blue skies. Blue vistas. Blue waters all around. That is the arresting beauty and charm of The Blue Water – the newest architectural showpiece in the Jetwing family of hotels, situated just a short drive from the capital Colombo, in the coastal town of Wadduwa. Walk through its cool white corridors, and be greeted by the spectacular sight of a lush green coconut palm garden. Get hypnotised by the soothing sounds of cascading ponds and fountains. The swimming pool is too good to resist – so too the excellent buffet and a la carte cuisine. By night, the Hotel's stunning elegance is accentuated even more. Rooms are simple but luxurious – loll about in crisp linen the shade of shell. Tennis and squash courts, three different bars - even a nightclub. You might never want to go home!

For a taste of traditional Sri Lankan pampering...

-Head on to the new Spa at The Blue Water.

Come March 2005. One could chill out and rejuvenate with nature in the new Spa at The Blue Water. Spa literally translated as “Health through water”, the vision of the Management Company Jetwing is to deliver World Class Spa therapies at The Blue Water set in a pristine location surrounded by water.

Discover a retreat based on the principle of inner & outer harmony. Celebrate the harmony of body , mind & soul all in the ultimate luxury of The Blue Water Spa.

The colours and texture of the sea provide The Blue Water spa all the inspiration needed for creation. The architecture of the master Geoffrey Bawa will be combined with the nature & free flowing open concept of the spa. Number of Treatment Rooms - 04 (four)

The Treatment Area Description:

Partly enclosed partly open air and located like pavilions. There is a patio like garden and also right round the Spa Center there is a timber deck, thereafter a pond, which surrounds the Spa Center. The only link to main land is the Spa entrance, which from the hotel side you see only the entrance door. There will be a pond right in front of Spa center as well.

The Type of Treatment :

The Blue Water Spa will offer more treatments more in line with feeling of wellness. The Spa therapies are based on modern Spa treatments with their root in Asia's traditional healing systems.

" Asia's healing traditions take a holistic approach of treating the body, mind and spirit as one, tackling the root cause of the problem and viewing the body as capable of healing itself. They are based on the fundamental principle of a "life force", which flows through the body, an imbalance of which is believed to be the cause of illness."
